

Question One

How do we refute Mormons' claim to being Christians? Please show me Scriptural examples.

Question Two

Simple version:

How should we interpret and practice the teaching of Jesus to turn the other cheek?

Longer Version:

How should we interpret and practice the teaching of Jesus to turn the other cheek in light of Bonhoeffer's "The Call to [Cost of] Discipleship." In that book he disallows us to take the typical personal vs. governmental distinction as essentially a cop-out. Even if we grant this distinction to say Bonhoeffer was wrong, how do we reconcile turn the other cheek with Jefferson's idea that "when tyranny becomes law, rebellion becomes duty"?

Question Three

My question is:

Did Jesus put Himself under submission to the Word, or our Father?

Question Four

The word 'anointing' has been coming to me while in prayer and wanting to know why someone gets anointed with oils? I have been baptized. Isn't that the only anointing you need besides accepting Jesus as your Savior?
